Our Guests

Orly Lieberman teaches Judaic Studies at the Abraham Joshua Heschel Middle School and serves as the Congregational intern at the Hebrew Institute of White Plains. She received her BA from Princeton University in Religion and Judaic Studies. In 2007, Orly completed three years of intensive study in Talmud and Halacha as part of Drisha Institute's Scholars' Circle. A lifelong New Yorker, Orly lives in Washington Heights with her husband, Edward Farbenblum.

Sari Abrams is an award winning early childhood educator, and child development specialist working with young children and parents. She has been a master teacher to countless numbers of B'not Mitzvah, brides and people studying for conversion to Judaism. Sari was recently selected to participate in a pilot program of JOFA, Drisha Institute, and Yeshivat Chovevei Torah Rabbinical School, designed to train women in halachik areas pertaining to niddah, sexual health, and intimacy. She is a mother of three and is married to Rabbi Yosef Kanefsky.

The Marilynn Lowenstein Twilight Tikkun was established by family & friends to perpetuate Marilynn's love of learning, her enthusiasm for teaching and her role in strengthening women's role in the world of Jewish learning. This annual Twilight Tikkun now bears the name of Marilynn Lowenstein and insures that her spirit and work remain active.
